

CODART*light* Brugge

Brugge
8 November
2010

Monday, 8 November

- 10:00-10:30 Coffee and registration in the “Vriendenzaal” of the Groeningemuseum.
- 10:30-10:35 Welcome by Gerdien Verschoor, director, CODART, The Hague.
- 10:35-10:50 Welcome by Manfred Sellink, director, Musea Brugge.
- 11:00-12:15 Visit to the Sint-Janshospitaal. Participants are welcome to freely visit the museum, including the attic.
- 12:30-13:00 Discussion about the future permanent exposition of the Sint-Janshospitaal in the “Vriendenzaal” chaired by Suzanne Laemers, curator of 15th- and 16th-century Netherlandish painting, RKD, The Hague.
- 12:30-12:35 Statement by Hilde De Bruyne, archivist-curator, OCMW-Brugge (Openbaar Centrum voor Maatschappelijk Welzijn).
- 12:35-12:40 Statement by Jos Koldewij, professor of art history, Radboud University Nijmegen.
- 12:40-13:00 Discussion
- 13:00-14:20 Lunch in the “Vriendenzaal.”
- 14:30-15:00 Introduction to the exhibition Van Eyck to Dürer by Till-Holger Borchert, chief curator, Musea Brugge and curator of the exhibition.
- 15:00-17:00 Free visit to the exhibition. Manfred Sellink, Till-Holger Borchert and Antje-Fee Köllermann (scientific collaborator, Musea Brugge and co-curator of the exhibition) available for questions.
- 17:00-18:00 Reception (offered by the Friends of Musea Brugge).
- End of program.

This CODART*light* is a cooperation between CODART and the Musea Brugge and is made possible by the generous contributions of Musea Brugge, Bruggecentraal and Stad Brugge.

CODART
International council for curators
of Dutch and Flemish art

