

INVITATION

Oh my! – A Loan Request!

Museums, Curators and Collectors – How they cooperate

A CODART Patrons Salon with

Willem Baron van Dedem, Leonore van Sloten and Bart-Jan Kastrop

Moderator: Pieter Roelofs

The Friends of CODART Foundation takes pleasure in inviting you to the CODART Patrons Salon to take place during The European Fine Art Fair (TEFAF) on Saturday, 14 March 2015.

Willem Baron van Dedem, private collector in Richmond near London, owns one of the finest private collections of seventeenth-century Dutch and Flemish paintings in the world. Baron Van Dedem generously honours loan requests from museums worldwide. But how do you deal, as a private collector, with the challenges of loans to museums, such as insurance and transports? What are the benefits and what are the pitfalls?

Leonore van Sloten, curator at the Rembrandt House Museum, Amsterdam, will highlight this subject from the other side: what problems are faced by museums that wish to exhibit works of art from private collections? Are there differences between arranging loans from private collectors and from museums?

Willem Baron van Dedem and Leonore van Sloten will be interviewed by Pieter Roelofs, curator of seventeenth-century Dutch painting at the Rijksmuseum, Amsterdam – one of the museums that received some loans from Baron Van Dedem. Bart-Jan Kastrop, owner of Classicus Private Insurance, who is an expert on insurance and legal matters concerning international loans, will also take part in this conversation. The speakers will be happy to respond to questions from, and points raised by, members of the audience.

The salon will take place during The European Fine Art Fair (TEFAF) in the MECC in Maastricht on Saturday, 14 March 2015 from 10:00-11:30h.
